Dear Mr. Grey,

On behalf of all of those who will benefit from your recent help, thank you! We received 8 suites of furniture, consisting of 20 pieces each. This furniture will be used to help disabled adults living in Interfaith housing in Escondido, California. Your gift is a blessing to us, and you are, too!

I observe on a daily basis people who come in our doors, terribly worried and concerned about what will become of them in the next few hours. It is a joyful experience to see them leave, worry lines in their faces softened by a smile, already planning for their brighter future, thanks to our wonderful volunteers, and staff, and you.

Whether their problem need is food, a place to shower and wash their clothes, shelter, employment, transportation, sobering and escape from dependence, minor home repairs, mental health, school problems, or any of the many other human needs I could list, coming to Interfaith is a haven from the world and a good place to begin healing.

We couldn't do this without our faithful partners: volunteers, faith centers, businesses, foundations, donors, service clubs, schools, and government agencies. Working together, we can and do accomplish miracles in the lives of individuals and families in crisis.

As a result our homes, our neighborhoods, our communities, and our world are all safer and healthier.

By participating in Interfaith, you are an anchor in a storm, and you are appreciated.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Stewart Pohlman
Executive Director
